

Visa information

- All visa invitations you requested and received from the organisers are valid (irrespective of the fact that the dates in them are 6-7 June)
- If you have received a visa based on this invitation and it has expired, you should once more apply to the respective Embassy or Consulate and ask to give a repeated visa. You will not have to pay for it another time. Only you may be asked to present e.g. a valid insurance policy, if the previous one has expired.
- If you submitted visa documents shortly before the Corona crisis and were denied visa for this reason, the same as in the point above: apply once more.
- If you had a Schengen longer-term visa and it has expired, you have to apply for visa according to general procedure: no waivers are applicable.
- If you do not have a visa, you need an invitation from the organisers. The information we need from you:
